

Livestock Advisor Professional Development

When: Monday 16 March and Tuesday 17 March 2020.

Where: Vibe Waterfront, Darwin, Northern Territory.

Investment: $255 per participant

- Are you a red meat industry advisor wanting to improve the quality and impact of your service delivery to your clients?
- Do you want hands-on training like you've never experienced before?

What does it involve?

After two days of intensive training you WILL walk away with knowledge and skills to:

- deliver high impact training and support to your clients
- make your training rich, inclusive, multi-sensory and invigorating
- effectively engage and inspire your clients
- get clients 'curious' in training and advisory services
- grow your business
- explore business models that work for you and your client base.

What's on the program?

DAY ONE - 8.30am-5pm

- a full day hands on session with Laurie Kelly, a highly regarded extension and delivery trainer (check him out at <http://www.lauriekelly.net>), who will show you brain-friendly delivery skills to engage learners, accelerate learning and make learning stick.
- Finish the day with a social event networking with fellow industry professionals.

DAY TWO - 8.30am-3pm

- the focus will be on exploring further engagement techniques and you will hear how successful advisors have developed and grown their business. This is also an opportunity to work with Laurie and other consultants to investigate how new business skills and ideas can work for you, to delve into business advisory businesses and ask the hard questions during a panel discussion about different consultancy models.

Registration link: Livestock Advisor Professional Development Darwin

Note places in this event are limited, please register early to avoid missing out.